Call to Order: President Nancy Russell

Invocation: Tywana Hampton

Pledge: President Nancy Russell

Mission Statement: President Nancy Russell

Welcome: President Nancy Russell

Program Speaker: Steve Trivett, Mayor, Town of Ashland, Va.

Mayor Trivett began by describing Ashland as a "mostly blue" community with "some conservatives" in its' midst. He has lived in Ashland now longer than he lived out of the town.

He spoke about how citizens trust those they know. If you are doing something that matters, it counts. Citizens will take notice. Become involved. Listen. Learn. Candidates do not run on party lines, but rather on needs.

Mayor Trivett cited examples of Congressman Rob Wittman and State Senator McClellan. He recanted how Congressman Wittman had led the Pledge of Allegiance, and then visited a number of businesses in Ashland when he visited the town. He became involved, listened, and learned about the citizens, their needs, and their town.

State Senator McClellan has come to Ashland only once.

The Mayor continued by telling the HRWC membership the importance of ensuring the safety of the community. He stressed that he holds steadfast to his conservative values, "sticks to [his] guns, keeps his hand on the rudder steering to the right, and through the use of facts and reason convinces his constituents of what needs to be done. Together they work toward shared ideals.

Mayor Trivett took some questions before leaving for a previously scheduled appointment at 7:00 p.m. elsewhere.
