- The Virginia Federation of Republican Women's State Convention will be held May 13-15, 2022 at the Westin Hotel in Alexandria, Virginia. Please see the VFRW website for specifics regarding reservations, programs, speakers, etc.
- The RPV Advance 2022 is being held April 28 – May 1, 2022 at the Hilton Washington Dulles Airport Hotel.

Announcements / Speakers:

- Dan Moy, a Republican candidate for the 5th Congressional District, gave HRWC members their first in person comments about himself and the service he hopes to provide constituents in the new district should he win the nomination and subsequent election to the U. S. Congress. He brought with him flyers with introductory remarks and his values / goals.
- Jenny Carlsen, of the James River Republican Women's Club, is running for District Representative for the Virginia Federation of Republican Women. She spoke briefly with regard to the role she would have within VFRW should she be elected to the position.

Featured Speaker: Victoria Cobb, President, The Family Foundation

Victoria Cobb presented the HRWC members in attendance with an energetic, fact filled summary of the issues / bills The Family Foundation supported and followed through the 2022 Virginia General Assembly, both the House of Delegates and the State Senate. She was exhilarating! The membership in attendance were thoroughly engaged with her presentation, and asked a number of questions as she ended her remarks.

Dates she shared with the HRWC members for coming events included:

- March 19, 2022: A very special event to be held at St. John's Church in Hanover County.
- April 27, 2022: March for Life at the Capitol Square in Richmond, Va.

March 15, 2022

Dave Fuller won the HRWC 50/50..... $20.00!

The VFRW membership website is up and running. All HRWC members may now go on line, using their e-mail address as their user name, and creating their individual password following directions from the e-mail sent out by VFRW. Enjoy!!

With that, and a reminder to help themselves to freshly baked cookies from HRWC President Nancy Russell, she adjourned the meeting.

Respectfully submitted,

Susan S. Cobb,
Recording Secretary
